Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

Re. tomorrow's meeting with NWEA, I have 12:30 EST down on my calendar. If you have a Noon start time, could you confirm and send me the call in number?

Also, I do not have the Whitman meeting details for tomorrow, but last week you did send me some info on the Thursday meeting. Sounds like tomorrow's meeting is more focused on CZARA than Thursday's, but at this point I feel like I should take a pass on both meetings just to keep the numbers below the level of overwhelming for the visitors.....

Katie,

Thanks for helping out on the OR Ag stuff.

Yes. Tomorrow's a big day for OR CZARA. The first meeting is in Portland, OR, with Nina Bell, NWEA Exec. Dir., to discuss the settlement agreement. It's bound to be an ugly discussion. I think it's from noon to 1 PM our time. Coincidentally, Oregon's Governor's environmental policy advisor, Richard Whitman, will meet with Ellen G & others from 1-2 PM to discuss a bunch of different topics<the pending CZARA disapproval being one of them. He remains in town tomorrow and is also meeting with NOAA on Thursday.

I'm pretty sure I sent a copy of the Stoner PPT to Chris Solloway fairly recently, as Lynda has expanded his involvement with CZARA, given all the new attention on the program from a number of fronts. I'm hoping he can send it to you. If he can't, let me know and I'll boot up my EPA laptop.

Thanks.

Don
